Creating Global Ventures --- The Next Challenge for Japan's Evolving Venture Habitat

Allen Miner,
Chairman & CEO,
SunBridge Corp.

Mr. Allen Miner, Chairman & CEO, SunBridge Corporation, discusses the direction and next stage in the evolution of Japan's habitat for entrepreneurship. In the 1980's, Mr. Miner founded and led Oracle's Japan subsidiary. Following the successful IPO of Oracle Japan, he then founded SunBridge Corporation in 1999. SunBridge provides growth-enabling services to startups and global enterprises, including early stage venture capital investment, software product and internet system development, sales and marketing services, organizational strategy and recruiting. Mr. Miner also serves on the boards of Salesforce.com Japan and several other SunBridge portfolio companies. He was appointed to the Board of the Japan Venture Capital Association on its founding in 2002, and he has been a sponsor and advisor to the Stanford Project on Japanese Entrepreneurship since 2008.
