The Rise of Venture Capital Investing in India

Before the downturn of 2008, venture capital investments accounted for US$928M out of total $14.2 billion private equity investments in India. Then, PE in India dropped drastically to $1.95 billion in 2009. Our panelists discuss how growth is increasingly driven not by IT outsourcing but by young, upwardly mobile consumers, a domestic market predicted to grow 19%/year.
